WISDOM OF THE SPIRIT.

No. 6. Volume I.

September, 1934.

"Men have asked that the wisdom of the Father may be given to them through those of the spirit. Men have said 'Let us have in a book this wisdom written', and men have asked, 'what shall the book be called?' Seeing that the wisdom be of the Father, through the Spirit, I the Light say, 'Let the Book be called 'Wisdom of the Spirit'".

(Given by 'THE GREATER ONE' on 16 March 1934)

EDITORIAL.

Our solutions and deductions to the problems set last month are as follows :-

1. That "Wisdom of the Spirit" is only 1/4d. per year - or a fraction of a penny per week more than any one Psychic Paper of which the price is 2d.
2. That our Journal, which contains as much, if not more direct Spirit Teaching than is to be found in four contemporary psychic periodicals, costs £1.4s.8d. a year (or 5  $\frac{9}{13}$  d. a week) LESS than four such papers.

We have set these problems in order to give our readers a mathematical answer with which to meet any adverse criticism as regards our price. We aim at supplying in each number sufficient teaching to last a month. If properly studied and assimilated, the true hidden value of this Wisdom "which is from above" will gradually be discerned and appreciated by the world.

A THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH .

There be that which exalteth above measure, and that which lowereth to the depths. Take heed therefore that the path which ye propose to tread is like to lead into the Holy Places where the Father dwelleth.

VIBRATIONS.

BY
"THE PROFESSOR"

Coming again by the permission of Almighty God, I am going to talk to-night my friends, on a subject of which most of you have heard, vaguely perhaps, and the word which I shall use most frequently to-night is one that you have often heard before. I am going to talk to you about vibrations. Really, I am going to talk to you about life - yours and ours, and others also - and I will try and explain these words to you, so that when you hear and meet them in your everyday life, you will perhaps have a better understanding of "Life" as well as "Vibrations".

You have in the human body a mass of cells. Your physique is composed of flesh and bones, and the flesh is made up of millions of cells. You have blood flowing within your veins which is again composed of life cells, millions of them; your bodies are composed of various salts and life cells.

Now each one of you has a different rate of living because each of you has your individual rate of thinking. Most of you have met during your walks of life those slow-witted people who think and speak with great solemnity; they find it hard to grasp any new idea, their speech is slow and their thought phlegmatic. (I am not talking about those who are mentally deficient.) You are also well aware of the fact that there are those who have the quick thought, who see a point instantly - almost before you have voiced it. Now in between these two extremes you have many rates of vibration; you have the moderately quick thinker, you have the faster and the slower thinker. If you will look at these people you will notice that they act and speak in exactly the same manner as they think, and vice versa. So if you find a man who speaks slowly and who shews difficulty in grasping a situation, you will know that man is instinctively a slow thinker, and you will also know that the whole rate of that man's vibration is a slow one.

THREE RATES OF VIBRATIONS.

Now there are three rates of vibrations. There is first the vibration of thought which is as fast as light and which travels at the rate of 186,000 miles per second. The slowest rate of vibration is the word which is naturally slower than the thought, and in between the thought and word you have the vibration which is denoted to us by music. Here I would say that silent prayer is faster in its rate of vibration than that either spoken or sung, and second to it comes the spoken word. Now not only do these rates of vibration travel quickly, but they alter in the length of their travelling. The thought can travel instantaneously into space and there is no end to its travelling, in fact, my friends, you can never know the end of your thoughts' journey; the word goes forth, and in the same way you cannot know its end either, because it has been translated on to the sound waves which encircle your globe. The sung note or word does the same, but neither it nor the word goes as high as the thought. I might explain it in another way - the thought can go out, round and up; the word goes only out and round, and the music does the same, but notes of music ascend slightly. Neither words nor music however, ascend to the same degree as the unspoken thought.

You are living surrounded by thousands of waves of vibrations. In most of your homes now-a-days you have wireless instruments which prove that out of the ether encircling the Earth on which he lives, man has harnessed certain waves of sound. The time will come when men will have recording instruments on which they will be able to receive thought waves also, and the time will also come (you will be like myself, discarnate by then) when you will see the Earth children listening in to their Thought-Receiving instruments, as you today listen-in to your wireless.

THE THOUGHT BELT

The belt of thought surrounds your globe and is farther off than the sound waves, and when you think a thought, you unconsciously touch some wire, some wave, in the Thought Belt, and according to the nature of your thought, be it good or evil, you touch and let loose a wave of power, good or evil, in the Thought Belt. You are all creators, good or bad, every time ~~you~~ think a good thought of somebody, either abstractly or concretely, you create a good wave and you set this thought wave encircling your Earth, and on whom it rests, it blesses them. Those on whom it rests, and who are attuned to it receive the blessing which you consciously send out, in exactly the same way as those of you who are attuned to one station hear one programme, and those who are attuned to another station hear that programme, so those of you who are attuned to the good vibrations of thought, will receive the good thoughts travelling around your Earth, and those who are attuned to lower vibrations of evil and malice will only receive those kind of thoughts and will also receive the consequences of them. Now as you are receivers, so you are transmitters; but again you can only transmit good if you are in tune with the good belt, and you can only transmit evil if you are attuned to the lower belt and so transmitting and receiving evil thoughts.

Vibrations play a far greater part in your lives than you have any idea of. The majority of you live very ordinary lives, and some of you may make the mistake of thinking that your present life is all that matters, but the day will come when you leave your Earth and come to the World of Spirit. Some of you view your present life and the life to come in a very haphazard manner, but this I will tell you my friends, that as you keep your vibrations high now, as you think high thoughts consciously every day, so you will be attuned to high vibrations when you come to our side. And as the lower vibrations are so very harsh and cold and so entirely unsatisfying, I advise you strongly not to be phlegmatic in your life and to be conscious transmitters of good vibrations. To put this in everyday language I mean: as you live, watch the kind of thought you have and you will soon notice that when you are thinking joyful and happy thoughts and you are contented and pleased, your whole physical body will appear to you much lighter. In exactly the same way as most of you walk with greater ease during the period when the sun strikes your Earth with greater force, so when you have the joyousness of life coming from within you, do we see you move with greater ease. Now in the winter you all have to wear much heavier clothing, there is a keenness in the air, there is a sadness about, there is a greyness and a darkness. The night falls early, and generally speaking, men and women are at a lower rate of vibration altogether; but this is not entirely due to the Season it is due to your own thought processes. The person who keeps an even vibration, an even rate of thought in winter as in summer, will never notice the difference in the Seasons, you can be as happy and as light-hearted, as joyous and carefree in your winter as when the sun shines on your Earth; you can be as loving and patient, as kind and compassionate in the midst of sorrow and trial as when all is bright and fair around you. I would earnestly ask you to watch how quick you are to respond to happiness around you, because those who respond quickest to others' happiness should take heed that they give out the maximum amount of happiness to others, because they will have had ample proof themselves of the salutary effect it has upon them, and if you have benefitted by the rate of vibration of other people, surely you must seek to do to them what they did to you.

THE EFFECT OF EMOTIONS

If you will analyse your lives, and watch your own bodies, you will find that when you are angry the whole physical form is shaken. The rate of vibration is then so changed that some people can hardly utter the words they wish to speak. Again, fear clutches the heart and can cause a stopping of the pulse-beating which also stops breathing and can cause a paralytic stroke. Fear grips you and you shake inwardly, you are terrified, and your fear can be so severe as to cause instantaneous death.

Watch the talking of some people, watch the expression on their faces, watch their smile or the absense of it, and you will know pretty well what thoughts that person is thinking, because the thoughts are mirrored in the aura, and the aura mirrors the physique as well. Vibrations, my friends, are so important a part of your lives that I wish all of you could understand them more. You come in contact with someone who is very nervous and full of nervous energy, he talks quicker and quicker, he expresses himself in jerky sentences; that person needs to calm his vibrations, to slow down the thought process and that person will completely upset the vibrations and nerves of a person of the opposite rate, because the smooth quiet thinking individual will be completely put out by the other's very high state of nerves.

Around you are unseen rays, of which no man know anything, but they are going to be discovered. Not so long since, your scientists discovered the infra red and the infra blue, and they are going to discover at least 150 more rays, and outside of your Earth there are so many rays and rates of vibrations of these rays that I doubt whether you will ever have the instruments sufficiently keenly attuned to register the changes of them. To be practical you need to be able to turn scientific terms into everyday language.

Now go home and analyse yourselves, try to find out what rate of vibration you live on, try to find out how much you are attuned to the high and pure thought vibration, how much pure good thinking you do everyday. (Never mind about what other people do) What thoughts do you yourselves send out on to the invisible but definitely concrete belt of thought waves?

Desire to draw more and more from the Mind of God so that you may be creating unending waves of good thoughts. What I am saying is practical commonsense for every man, woman and child on the Earth to-day. Spiritualism will be of no avail so long as there are men and women who seek the spirit world for phenomena only, and come to this Church and others throughout the country, simply to seek some evidential and highly dramatic message. Spiritualism is not spiritism. If taken in its proper form, spiritualism teaches men to become like God, and if spiritualists are not becoming more God-like, then they are not worthy of the name of spiritualists, because according to Dictionary, the meaning of that word is "one whose condition is spiritual". If spiritualists would devote themselves to thinking good thoughts and raising the rate of vibrations throughout the world instead of being satisfied with the knowing of life after death, you would have no more war, no more back-biting, slander, malicious talking and lying. Instead, you would have clean thinking and loving hearts living in the world and trying to show that world the perfection of the Master, Jesus Christ.

Sometime, everyone in this room will be on the same side of life as I am when I am not controlling my Medium. Sometime, everyone in this room however frivolous their state of mind may be at the present moment, however unconcerned with the perfection of man they may be throughout their earthly life, will have to stand and see themselves face to face, as I stood when I also crossed from matter to Spirit. And because I had thoughts to rectify, and because I have seen the agonies of those who had evil thoughts and lives to repair, I come back time after time to you and others and try to show you the necessity of conscious concentrated good thinking. I ask you to view yourselves to this purpose; to manufacture so much good that, by your thoughts you will let loose in the Wave Belt of Thought so much Godliness and right-thinkingness, which is righteousness, that all your world will forget the petty jealousies of governments and thereby nations will forget their greed and lust for power and so the Kingdom of Heaven may reign on Earth and Peace and Goodwill in the hearts of all.

I have talked to you a little about vibrations; I have in the past talked to you about thoughts, so much so, that I fear I might be boring you. To-night I have talked to you about them under their real title, and my friends, if you will analyse what I have said, you will come to the conclusion that yet again I have talked to you about thoughts.

I leave you in the presence of God and, though you may not believe it my friends, I repeat; every thought that you have ever sent forth will be there to stare you in the face when you look in your mirror. Therefore, it is for your sakes that I ask God to send you the desire to create by your thoughts, a model of thought which will be perfect like Himself.

Thanking my God for the opportunity of returning to Earth and praying that His Wisdom may enter your hearts, I go my way and bid you good-night.

(The above address was given at the Hendon Spiritualist Church on 1st July, 1934.)

THE LOVE OF THE FATHER.

My little children, I come in the Father's love and power. I would say just a few words to all the children. When ye are in the way of difficulty and trouble and are grieving in the hearts of ye, hold on to your Father's hand. Lift up your spirits unto Him because He understandeth all that is in the hearts and minds of ye. There is none other to help you like unto Him and if ye call unto Him, then He will surely send you help, and in your need He shall cover ye with His feathers, and under His wings He taketh His children. So I would ask ye to always have your Father in mind, He never faileth His children and wheresoever ye may be, His hand shall guide ye.

MESSAGE FROM THE SPHERES.

GIVEN INSPIRATIONALLY THROUGH
E. E. T., 21st FEBRUARY, 1927.

There is great activity in the Spheres to-day consequent on the ending of the present Age and the dawning of the new Era.

The time is drawing very nigh for the calamities to fall upon the Earth, which shall call forth a display of the omnipotent power of Jehovah.

Evil shall be overthrown, the Price of the Powers of Evil shall have no more domination over this world, and when the tempters cease to tempt, the people will quickly return to the joy and peace of working in conformity with God's law and striving after that state of perfection which is the plan of God for Earth.

The nations shall know no strife nor division, there shall be one Ruler over the entire Earth - the Prince of Peace - and of His Kingdom there shall be no end. His subjects will obey Him in loyalty and true service, striving for the upliftment and betterment of each and all, and gradually attaining the goal of perfection.

Can you picture the time when there will be no temptation, when the Forces of Right will be impressing, leading and guiding, in visible presence the people of Earth?

The heavenly guides will take up their abode amongst those they guide and lead, and those who are lead will turn to its parent or teacher for help and guidance.

The signs of the end are becoming apparent to the discerning eye and the open mind. The cosmic changes are being effected in various parts of the Earth's surface, for the Polar Axis will take a new direction and parts of the Earth will disappear. The ocean will flow where land has been and rivers will alter their courses. Tidal waves, earthquakes and volcanic action are bringing about these new conditions.

The time is coming when all shall worship God in the beauty of holiness without the need of forms and ceremonies, as men become fully conscious that they can reach At-one-ment with God.

Write it in the book and rehearse it in the ears of the people. In the past there have been minor gods and goddesses walking the Earth to teach and train evolving men of the Earth, to lift them up and enable them to win the prize of immortality and to become the immortal sons of God-the-One.

These gods were the first children of God-the-One and offered willing service to Father-Mother-God, by coming to this Earth in visible form, clad in light as with a garment, to carry out God's plan to men. They will come again.

The Divine One of the Age of Aquarius is busy upon the Cosmic work connected with His term of office. The plans are prepared, the teaching that shall be developed during this Age has been formulated, the spiritual teachers know the special subjects to take for their themes and to adopt them to the growing needs of this time. All power will be given to the chosen ones of God to transmute the material to the spiritual. This will explain to you

"one shall be taken and the other left", for when the destructive forces would overwhelm the people of God, their very substance shall be transmuted into indestructible spiritual substance.

God is very near. He is manifesting Himself in various ways, storm and tempest fulfilling His Word. Events are moving towards the consummation; spiritual beings of all orders are lending their aid. Spirit people from the planets are bringing concentrated power to help Earth resist the onslaught of evil. The rebel leaders of evil are making a mighty effort to prevail over man, but the spiritual forces of Right are effecting their purpose of reclaiming and regenerating man. All evil shall be overcome eventually.

Let all light-bearers on the Earth plane, work in their appointed way to further the work of regeneration.

Editor's note:- For the benefit of our Readers we would explain that "an Age" may vary in length and may be of 2000 years duration. Already many of the prophecies contained in the above and other Spirit Messages we have received, are being fulfilled but the greater part of the fulfilment is yet to come.

Coming, as they do, from very needy families, this change means a great deal, both to the parents and the little ones themselves. ## R U E W O R S H I P .

GIVEN BY "THE CARDINAL"
THROUGH MRS. G. RAY RICHMOND ON MAY 5, 1934.

In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit of Love, blessings be on ye all, sons and daughters of Almighty God. My beloved ones, ye are met together to obtain wisdom of the Holy Father of Light. This I would say unto ye all who come to worship Him; ye must needs worship Him within the heart. And though it is meet and seemly that men should build temples, and though ye gather together to worship the Holy Father and to give unto each other such comfort and brotherly affection as ye may, forget ye not that the Master Jesus Christ Himself said: "And thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray unto thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seest in secret shall reward thee openly".

My beloved ones, of old, men in their folly, having turned aside from the simplicity which is in Christ Jesus, made unto themselves images (for in ages before the Lord Jesus walked the Earth the men had made unto themselves graven images such as the Golden Calf) and said within themselves: "We shall wear raiment, we shall adorn ourselves". How think ye - which shall the Holy Father of Light bless - the raiment or the heart that prayeth? Shall He bless the incense or the prayers that ascend? Shall He bless the candle lights and the bending of the knee? The form of prayer and the lip service and the Rosary? Or shall He bless the unspoken prayer uttered to Him within the closet of the heart when the door thereof is shut? And what shall be the reward of them who pray with the lips with I know not which form, and who say the many "Aves" and who repeat the many forms of supplication. They shall be rewarded according unto the force of the prayer of them, and though they shall think to themselves "I have said the Office" and "I have said the many forms of prayer therefore shall a Saint bless me", they shall find that, one with the other they shall have profited but little. But if he shall pray unto the Holy Father ~~one~~ thought of desire unto Him, that shall profit him much. However, it shall not be accounted unto him as sin, when he shall come within the Kingdom of the Spirit, to have said the many prayers, rather he shall find it shall not have profited him the years of absolution that he hath thought within himself to have gained.

G O D   A L O N E   A B S O L V E S .

The folly of those who rule in the Church, which hath been called the Holy Church of Rome, is that they rule the many forms of worship throughout the world; for when it shall be that one man shall say "I am the Ruler of men appointed by the Holy Father of Light" such folly shall be the undoing of such a man, for it is not given unto one, nor unto ten, nor unto a hundred to rule the souls of men and women. The Holy Father of Light ever heareth the prayers of the heart unspoken and it is given unto Him to fulfill all things and all desires according unto His Will. If a man sin, shall he needs go unto another man and say "I have sinned - absolve thou me?" Shall he not rather say within the closet of himself, unto the Holy Father (who alone knoweth all things, who alone is a judge of all the Earth) "Lo, Thou seest me, according unto Thy mercy forgive Thou me. According to Thy compassion give Thou unto me Love for the hate that I have given unto men that I might for that hate give love instead. Give Thou unto me Truth that I, who have spoken falsely might with Thy Truth speak again

Give Thou me tenderness, that I who have been harsh and bitter, who have condemned my fellow men, may with Thy Love and Thy compassion forgive as I would be forgiven! Shall that man not receive of the Holy Father benediction - doth he need to go unto a man of flesh? How shall the man of flesh, who hath perchance himself sinned in thought, forgive? Shall he give the riches of the Holy Father more than the Holy Father can give Himself unto the man who prayeth?

NO "MYSTERY" IN GOD'S WISDOM

That such things may profit, some have been ordained thereto which is by the rulers of the Church, so that they, in making many mysteries, making many forms and many speeches of prayer, might hold and rule the minds of men. They teach so much, and no more, so that a man shall come unto a priest and say, "Father I would know such a thing," and the priest shall say, not knowing himself perchance, "My son, that is a mystery". And lo, the foolish one, he saith: "It be a mystery and I be not worthy to learn such a mystery". And the priest - how shall the foolish man know that the priest knoweth naught save that which hath been taught unto him by the men ordained by the Pope. My beloved ones, the Wisdom of the Holy Father of Light is offered unto all men and if it come unto one more than unto another, perchance it be that that one hath applied himself to learn of the Holy Father more than another and the Wisdom of the Holy Father it be in no form of dogma; for one shall speak of the rate of light and one shall speak of the note of music and one shall speak of one thing and another of another and they shall all speak of the Holy Father of Light.

The forms of worship, they mean naught, and the saying of the "Aves" and the praying of the set forms of prayer, they shall not absolve a man, but the sorrow of the heart and the contrite spirit, as ye shall read within the Psalms, be all that the Holy Father of Light requireth of any man. And ye shall say: "What shall it profit and where shall be the raiment when they pass within the land of the spirit?" The raiment and vestments of worship, they be where the raiments that ye wear shall be when ye pass within the spirit - they shall not be higher and they shall not be lower. And a man shall not ascend closer unto the Holy Father of Light for praying within a garment of gorgeousness and a robe of much richness he shall not ascend perchance as far as the man who prayeth in garments that be torn with poverty and the feet shod with sorrow.

My beloved ones, ye know full well that the Lord Jesus Christ said unto ye that ye be temples, and as I have said unto ye, it is meet to build temples of the Holy Father that all men may meet therein, but though there be greater concord of power of the Holy Father within a temple builded on His Love, yet, if ye would make the fleshly temples of ye fit abiding places for the Holy Father ye would find that the earthly mansions of ye, large or small, poor or rich, would in themselves be outward manifestations of the inward temples of ye yourselves.

My beloved ones, would that ye would seek more often the knowledge of the Holy Father of Light, for many there be who seek the follies of the ways of men, many there be who seek but the wisdom of those of the Spirit. My beloved ones, the wisdom of the Holy Father of Light, it be above and beyond and beneath the spirit. And they of the spirit are like unto me, the Minister, we can tell ye but that which we learn of the Holy Father. It is meet, it is a matter of rejoicing when those whom ye love return unto ye again to give comfort of the heart in the hour of darkness, but my beloved ones, it shall profit the souls of ye more to learn concerning the laws of the Holy Father, for if ye learn these laws, ye shall walk in perfection.

HOW TO BE GOVERNED BY GOD

My beloved ones, when the Lord Jesus Christ walked on Earth, the flesh of Him lived within the Earth and the Spirit of Him governed the flesh, but the soul of Him, the mind of Him, was governed by the Holy Father Himself. Therefore He lived without the flesh and within it at the same time; and this shall be perchance a mystery unto ye, but I would that ye understand the more fully for this should ye all do, and if ye could so do, ye would understand many things.

You know full well that ye have within the flesh, the brain and the spirit of ye hath the mind. The spirit of ye it be within the flesh while ye are walking in the flesh, but the mind of ye, it be without, and at no time have ye completely the spirit of ye within the flesh, for that the part of the spirit which is mind is without. If ye would have wisdom of the Holy Father, that shall be given unto the mind of ye. And if ye would seek that wisdom, it shall come direct unto the minds of your own spirits; the mind shall control the brain, so ye shall be controlled through the mind of ye yourselves (in faith through the mind of Christ Jesus) by the Holy Father Himself.

And lo, the hour hath come that I should return, my beloved ones unto the Spirit. Ye have come in this hour with many cares and many burdens of life upon ye and it is well that ye meet together to seek of the Lord God, and I would have ye know that there be in the chamber around ye many ones of great brightness who have washed their robes in much suffering. Think ye not that they be saints, for no man be a saint and there be no saints within the spirit, such be the imaginations of the hearts of men, and they who have washed their robes white in obedience and tribulation of the soul, they stand around ye. For at all times when men are met together to enquire of the Lord, they come close unto them; and there be also countless ones of varying degrees. Some there be who have come to learn - and will ye as ye go, pray for them to have learned - pray ye who, not having known have come to hear the word of the Lord. My beloved ones, as I, the Minister, return unto that place appointed unto me, I would have ye give thanks unto the Lord God that he hath sent unto ye wisdom, that He hath blessed ye in howsoever small a manner. Render ye thanks and praise for it becometh man to give thanks unto the Lord for all that they receive.

May the Lord your God be above ye. May He be on your right hand and on your left, and may the Lord your God go before ye, guarding and guiding, now and at all times. Amen.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS.

M.R., BELFAST: If people have not developed spiritually and have few mental attainments, do they, with others of undeveloped spirit and mind, remain in charge of a "Group Guide" until, having reached a certain stage of spiritual and mental evolution, they (each) attain a personal guide? What entitles anyone to a personal guide and how is that guide contacted?

ANSWER: Everyone on Earth has attached to them a discarnate spirit who fills more or less the position of a guide. This one has the care of the individual in the body and endeavours to impress and to protect him while on Earth. Besides this entity, every man, woman and child has a "Teacher"- sometimes called a Guardian Angel. This latter being is an exalted spirit from one of the higher Spheres whose duty it is to instruct his charge while incarnate, and later when discarnate, in the laws of God and of Creation. The term "Group Guide" does not apply to individuals on Earth, but to those in spirit who are studying and following certain specific lines of thought. This term should read "Group Teacher".

E.G., SYDENHAM: Are there different languages spoken in other planes?

ANSWER: We speak mostly by thought, but for the first years we generally congregate together in the thought vibration of speech to which we were accustomed when on Earth, especially those in the third or fourth sphere. English-speaking spirit entities mostly move together as do the Germans, Italians etc., but by degrees, as time progresses, we invariably lose all sense of nationality and we learn to speak entirely in the thought language. For example: you think of something, say a chair. A Frenchman may also think of a chair and will call it by its name in his language. An Italian or a Russian will do the same, but if you were to say to an Englishman, "Draw me a chair", and to a Frenchman "Draw me... (his name for it) and to a German, "Draw me ... (his name for it ) and so on, they would all draw a chair, proving that they have all one thought, but different names for their thought.

In our world we gradually get to a time when we entirely speak by thought, therefore we have no need for words, and there are some who are so fitted for evolution when they come to our side that they immediately start to train themselves to forget all Earthly connection, all Earthly existence, in the endeavour to absorb more and more of the Life Force - the God Intelligence - of the higher spheres. These make the most successful, if I might use that word, men and women of our worlds because the essential thing we have to learn is the eradication of self. We have by many processes to wipe out our own will, our own self, but we naturally retain the reasoning intelligence which God has given us and you, only we have to take out of it the will and the self of that reasoning. We have in turn to become open channels for the Wisdom of God to enter us and if possible to pass through us to others in exactly the same way as a Medium has to be a channel for us to pass that wisdom through.

The Editor regrets that the Medium is not available this month for Personal Messages to be transmitted. This feature will, however, be resumed in our October issue.
